

Kāinga Ora–Homes and Communities Bill

Government Bill

Explanatory note

General policy statement

New Zealand’s urban areas are facing unprecedented pressure from strong population growth, changing preferences, and an aging population. There is a shortage in the kinds of homes people need and can afford. The traditional model of turning rural land into suburban homes is insufficient. It is not generally delivering diverse, thriving communities that provide choices about dwelling size, tenure, and typology and allow people in all life situations to co-exist and interact.

This Bill establishes Kāinga Ora–Homes and Communities as a Crown entity to address these challenges. Kāinga Ora–Homes and Communities will focus on contributing to sustainable, inclusive, and thriving communities that—

- provide people with good quality, affordable housing choices that meet diverse needs:
- support good access to jobs, amenities, and services:
- sustain or enhance the overall economic, social, environmental, and cultural well-being of current and future generations.

Kāinga Ora–Homes and Communities will have 2 key roles—being a public housing landlord, and leading and co-ordinating urban development projects. To enable Kāinga Ora–Homes and Communities to do this effectively, the Bill consolidates central government housing and urban development delivery capability by—

- disestablishing Housing New Zealand Corporation (Housing New Zealand) and its development subsidiary, HLC (2017) Limited (HLC):
- putting Housing New Zealand and HLC’s functions and assets into Kāinga Ora–Homes and Communities, including Housing New Zealand’s shares in the subsidiaries Housing New Zealand Limited and Housing New Zealand Build Limited:

- repealing the Housing Corporation Act 1974;
- putting some of the functions and assets related to KiwiBuild that currently sit in the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development into Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities.

The Bill will not transfer the Land for Housing Programme to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities for the time being. This is because further engagement needs to be undertaken with iwi to ensure the Crown’s Treaty settlement obligations are being met both now and in the future.

Recognising Māori interests

The Bill respects the Crown’s responsibility to consider and provide for Māori interests by—

- giving the board a collective duty to ensure Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities, when undertaking its urban development functions, has the capability and capacity to uphold the Treaty of Waitangi and its principles, understand and apply Te Ture Whenua Maori Act 1993, and be able to engage with Māori and understand Māori perspectives:
- giving Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities a function to understand, support, and enable the aspirations of Māori relating to urban development:
- requiring Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities to identify and protect Māori interests, partner and have early and meaningful engagement with Māori, and offer Māori opportunities to participate in urban development:
- preventing Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities from using Housing New Zealand’s exemptions in Treaty settlement legislation to override Rights of First Refusal (RFR).

Changes to Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992

The Bill makes several changes to the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992, which is the principal legislation under which Housing New Zealand delivers public housing assistance. This includes repealing restructuring provisions and transferring provisions relating to financial assistance for home ownership to the Bill.

These changes will result in the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992 dealing only with matters relating to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities’ public housing functions and community housing providers. Therefore, the Bill also changes the name of this Act to the Public Housing Management Act 1992.

Government policy statement on housing and urban development

The Bill also introduces a Government policy statement on housing and urban development (the GPS) to promote a housing and urban development system that contributes to the current or future well-being of New Zealanders.

The GPS will set out—

- the Government’s overall direction and priorities for housing and urban development:
- how the Government expects Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities to manage its functions and operations to meet the Government’s direction and priorities:
- how the Government expects other agencies to support that direction and those priorities:
- the Government’s expectations relating to Māori interests, partnering with Māori, and protections for Māori interests.

The Bill requires Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities to give effect to the GPS when performing its functions. This will help to clarify the Government’s expectations for Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities. It will enable Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities to plan its future activities in the context of the broader housing and urban development system.

The GPS will have a long-term outlook and must be reviewed at least every 3 years. It will be developed through a process that involves consultation with people who have an interest in housing and urban development in New Zealand. The responsible Ministers are required to issue a GPS within 1 year of the Bill’s commencement date.

The Ministry of Housing and Urban Development is required to prepare a disclosure statement to assist with the scrutiny of this Bill. Clause by clause analysis

Clause 1 is the Title clause.

Clause 2 is the commencement clause. The Bill comes into force on 1 October 2019.

Part 1

Preliminary provisions and establishment of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities

Subpart 1—Preliminary provisions

Clause 3 is an outline provision.

Clause 4 sets out how the Bill recognises and respects the Crown's responsibility to consider and provide for Māori interests.

Clause 5 defines various terms used in the Bill.

Clause 6 and Schedule 1 give effect to transitional and savings provisions. Broadly speaking, these provisions—

- provide for the disestablishment of Housing New Zealand Corporation (the Corporation) and its subsidiary HLC (2017) Limited. The other subsidiaries of the Corporation will continue as subsidiaries of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities as a result of the Corporation's property, including its shares in its subsidiaries, transferring to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities;
- provide for transfers of relevant property, contracts, financial approvals, and employees to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities;
- provide for functions and assets related to KiwiBuild that currently sit in the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development to be transferred to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities (but not functions relating to the Land for Housing programme and the former Crown Land Programme).

Clause 7 provides that the Act will bind the Crown.

Subpart 2—Establishment and objective of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities

This subpart provides for the following:

- the establishment of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities as a Crown entity to which the Crown Entities Act 2004 applies;
- the membership of its board, with the effect that it must comprise a total of not more than 8 but not fewer than 6 members;
- additional collective duties of the board of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities;
- the objective of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities.

Subpart 3—Functions and operating principles of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities

This subpart sets out the functions and operating principles of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities.

Subpart 4—Other provisions about Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities

This subpart provides for various matters, of which the main ones are as follows:

- re-enacting without substantive change the existing investigation and information-gathering powers about the circumstances of applicants for financial assistance for home ownership. These powers are currently in the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992;
- disapplying the powers in Treaty settlement legislation which provide that Housing New Zealand Corporation may dispose of RFR land to any person if the disposal is to give effect to the Crown's social objectives in relation to housing or services related to housing.

Part 2 Other matters

Subpart 1—Government policy statement on housing and urban development

This subpart provides for a Government policy statement on housing and urban development.

Subpart 2—Amendments to other enactments

Clause 30 repeals the Housing Corporation Act 1974.

Clause 31 changes the name of the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992.

Clause 32 and Schedule 2 make amendments to that Act to—

- repeal Part 4 (about vesting of State housing assets and liabilities and Corporation assets and liabilities in the company Housing New Zealand Limited), which is now spent;
- apply to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities, and to housing let by it or on its behalf, the provisions about income-related rents, information matching, and other tenancy matters (for example, allocating and letting housing to tenants and administering and terminating tenancies);
- reflect the fact that some of the provisions about financial assistance for home ownership are being moved to the new Act;
- make other consequential amendments to reflect the establishment of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities.

Clause 33 and Schedule 3 provide for consequential amendments to other Acts. Some of the amendments relate to the establishment of Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities, for example,—

- they add Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities to Part 1 of Schedule 1 of the Crown Entities Act 2004. This means that Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities is a Crown agent for the purposes of that Act, and that Act applies except to the extent otherwise stated. For example, the standard provisions about financial powers and payment of net surplus to the Crown apply:
- they add Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities to Part 2 of Schedule 1 of the Ombudsmen Act 1975. This means that the Ombudsmen Act 1975 and the Official Information Act 1982 will apply to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities.

Other amendments carry over existing Corporation powers to develop housing and other infrastructure and apply them to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities. For example, see the amendments to the following:

- Housing Act 1955: this Act provides for the acquisition of land for State housing purposes and the development of houses and infrastructure on that land. The Corporation is currently the agent of the Crown for the exercise of some functions under the Act, and this role will transfer to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities:
- Housing Assets Transfer Act 1993: this is currently an Act to provide for the transfer of certain mortgages, land, and housing-related assets of the Crown to Housing New Zealand Corporation and to provide for related matters. The amendments will enable transfers to Kāinga Ora—Homes and Communities:
- section 277A of the Property Law Act 2007: this provides that certain land covenants are void, including covenants that the transferee will not convey the land to Housing New Zealand Corporation:
- section 224 of the Public Works Act 1981: this permits the Government and a local authority to combine in works of both national and local importance.
